

The Ice Winter

55 1 5

Chapter 1 by Avery

The frozen lake had finally cracked open after all these year after that winter. It was not this fact however that startled me and made my stomach feel uneasy. Rather it was the soft, but prominent, single trail of footsteps that led out of it. Across the back of the property and up towards the grave yard not too far from my uncles house. Rumors went around that it was my old grandpa Allen coming back from the grave to kill us all. Sure enough that same night my little sister Louisa died. No one is for sure what the cause was. I did though.

Chapter 2 by Hailey Parker

I kept quite, thinking someone might get suspicious. It was just moments later i heard a light knock. I answered surprised to only see my father. He left when i was only 6 years old. I never forgave him. "Louisa!" He cried, after not seeing her for 9 years years and well, now she's gone. Everyone was worried why i wasn't upset about Louisa, but no one knew and no one will ever find out. Mom came running down the stairs yelling furiously, "GET OUT!" Mom pushed him out the door falling on his face tremendously. As he got up mom slammed the door and fell right on her butt crying, crying, and crying. I couldn't help but leave. If i was too get caught on what I had done i would be hated everywhere. So i kept quiet.
